2 Sample aspect table

Gezegen / Planet	Gezegen / Planet	Açı / Aspect	Orb	Yorum / Reading
Sun	Moon	Trine	+1°20′	Builds a natural bridge between the parent's identity and the child's emotional world.
Moon	Venus	Conjunction	+0°35′	Affection flows easily; the child receives warmth unconditionally and a hug becomes a tool.
Mars	Square	Moon	−1°50′	Tension rises when limits are enforced; the rule must be clear and the voice calm.
Jupiter	Trine	Sun	+2°15′	Room to teach and inspire is wide; curiosity is answered together.
Saturn	Sextile	Mercury	−0°55′	Discipline combined with play develops focus and responsibility.
Uranus	Square	Moon	+1°45′	Demand for autonomy hardens in adolescence; granting space reduces conflict.
Neptune	Trine	Venus	+1°10′	Imagination turns into shared creation: drawing, stories, play.
Pluto	Conjunction	Moon	−1°05′	The emotional bond is very deep; the line between dependency and connection must be noticed.

3 Sample interpretation

A supportive aspect between the Sun and the Moon builds a natural bridge between the parent's identity and the child's emotional world. The child feels safe; rules land softly when spoken with warmth. In adulthood this gives the child a fearless ground to build their own identity on.

Mars square the Moon is the test: when the nerve rises, the one enforcing the rule and the one giving love must not merge. The full report opens this interaction together with when and how it breaks down by age.

4 Action tips

1. Set boundaries with the reason, not only the rule (Saturn sextile wants a cause).

2. Keep Monday (Moon's day) for shared play; on tense days prefer movement over criticism.

3. During the Uranus square, don't redecorate their room — give them a corner of their own; honouring autonomy lowers conflict.
